

TIGROS is a company based in the province of Varese, founded in 1979, and operating more than 85 supermarkets across the provinces of Varese, Milan, Como, Pavia, Lodi, Monza Brianza, Novara, Verbano-Cusio-Ossola, Turin, Biella, and Vercelli. The company's mission is to continuously meet customers' food shopping needs by offering a reliable and convenient service that encourages customer loyalty. Melaregalo is TIGROS's prepaid gift card with a decreasing balance. It can be used to make purchases in all TIGROS stores (you can find the full list of locations at: tigros.it/page/punti-vendita), as well as to pay household utilities and to purchase fuel cards and other gift cards (such as Amazon, phone cards, Decathlon, Telepass, DAZN). The card can also be used to pay for groceries purchased through TIGROS Drive, by selecting "pay at pickup" as the payment method. It cannot be used to pay for groceries purchased through the TIGROS @Casa home delivery service. The Melaregalo card is valid for 12 months from the date of activation/purchase and is a bearer instrument. It is not rechargeable. Once the validity period has expired, the card can no longer be used and its remaining value cannot be refunded. The Melaregalo card is anonymous and may therefore be used by anyone. In case of loss, theft, misuse, or damage, no refund or replacement of the card value is allowed. The Melaregalo card can be combined and partially used. At self-checkout desks, select "Gift Card Amilon" on the screen and manually enter the code.
