

You are responsible for the use and safety of your gift cards. We are not responsible for any loss or damage resulting from gift cards used without permission. Gift cards are valid for 36 months. Any balance that remains after the 36 months will not be available for use. Gift cards cannot be used to buy further gift cards. In the event of fraud, misuse, an attempt at deception (including self-referral) or in the event of the suspicion of other illegal activities in connection with the issuance or redemption of vouchers or gift cards, we may close or block access to your Account and/or require a different means of payment.
