

Fever is the world's leading platform for creating and disseminating live experiences, a go-to for those who want to discover unique, engaging, and meticulously curated events. Active in major cities around the world, Fever has revolutionized the way we experience leisure time thanks to an offering that combines culture, entertainment and innovation. Each experience is conceived starting from the audience's real preferences, selected and analyzed through a data-driven approach that allows you to offer content that is always current, immersive, and of high quality. Thanks to its collaborations with artists, creatives, cultural institutions, and premier venues, Fever has created formats that have reached millions of people, transforming traditional events into extraordinary experiences. Its mission is to make culture more accessible and provide moments that combine emotion, beauty, and memory. Among Fever's most famous offerings are Candlelight Concerts, an international phenomenon that has won over audiences and critics thanks to its unique concept and ability to transform every concert into a moment of pure magic. Candlelight is much more than just a concert: it's a moment of wonder, intimacy, and atmosphere, a special opportunity to treat yourself to an unforgettable evening. Whether you choose an energetic tribute, a romantic concert, or a classical performance, what awaits you is an unforgettable evening, immersed in a bright and engaging setting. Get ready to get excited: your Candlelight experience is about to begin.
